WHERE THE WOW THINGS ARE

Make a beeline for The Little Wardrobe and stock up on fetching threads for your mini-me. This new shop features cute and oh-so-pretty pieces sourced from Down Under, Korea and the US. We can't resist the reversible layered polka-dot skirt from Australia's Oobi Baby for little princesses ($49.90), or the Kids Ink devil print rompers ($43.90) from the US for tiny terrors. It also showcases US brands like Mud Pie, Silly Souls and Ruffle Butts. Accessories and shoes complete the store's range. Visit #03-10 OUB Centre, 1 Raffles Place.

hot deal!

M&B readers who present this page at The Little Wardrobe in June will get a 15 per cent discount with a minimum purchase of $80 in a single receipt.

Eat healthy without feeling the pinch on your pocket with True Organic dairy products. Health-conscious mums and wallet-watching dads will give the nod to this premium range of certified organic milk and cheeses from the Co-operative of Australia's Organic Dairy Farmers. Perk up your fussy feeder's palate with well-loved cheddar, while you chow down on Edam, Brie, Gouda or Pecorino (from $7.90). Then, wash it all down with a glass of True Organic full-cream or low-fat milk ($3.40/1 litre). From Fairprice Finest supermarkets and selected NTUC Fairprice stores.

Concerned that your baby will be exposed to health risks from the mobile phone, laptop and TV? Lined with RadiaShield fabric, stylish and easy-to-use Belly Armor products will effectively shield your little one from harmful everyday radiation. Test by using it to wrap your cell phone and you'll notice the signal going down — really! Choose between the pure cotton Belly Blanket Chic ($89) and the Belly Blanket Luxe ($119), made of cotton microfleece and satin, to cover your tummy or your newborn. For expectant mums, there's also a cotton/spandex Belly Tee ($69) to protect your unborn baby. Call 6392-0977 or e-mail sales@ bellyarmor.com to order. Find out more at www.bellyarmor.com.

Real Green-ius

Eco- and animal-lovers will love Lemongrass House's all-natural kids range. This against-animal-testing brand uses ingredients derived from renewable resources and is free of preservatives, perfumes, dyes, artificial colourings or sulphates. The shampoo, body wash, bubble bath, body lotion and baby powder ($5 to $23) are prettily packaged in recycled/recyclable materials. Check out the collection — in blue chamomile, lavender and royal lotus fragrances — at #P3-20 Parco Marina Bay, 9 Raffles Boulevard.
